

2018 Midterm Internship/Fellowship Program

The Broward Democratic Party is currently accepting energetic, skilled, and committed applicants for our 2018 Internship program. As one of the nation's largest Democratic strongholds, Broward is the place where major elections are consistently decided. As an intern with the Broward Democratic Party, you will play an active role in making victory a reality. If you are interested in a hands-on, real world political experience to complement your coursework, please review the information below and apply today.

We offer two types of internships:

Full Time

30+ Hours per week

Organizational Development

Substantive Duties

*2 Political Fellows

*2 Field Fellows

Part Time

15-25 Hours per week

Mainly support duties

Generally, for credit

*2 Field Interns

*1 Press Interns

*3 Political Interns

All internships are based in Plantation Florida, are unpaid, and require a firm commitment through the semester. All applicants must be registered Democrats.

We are particularly interested in applicants who have completed coursework in:

- Political Science or a related field, and have prior knowledge of or work experience in a campaign or office setting.
- Journalism or a related field, and have prior knowledge of or work experience with Drafting press materials, maintaining press lists as well as any other related projects as needed.
- Administration or a related field, and have prior knowledge of or experience with Data entry, responding to messages, general research, Photoshop, and other projects as needed.
